

Margaret Bowron QC

Call: 1978 QC: 2001

Margaret Bowron QC's practice has for a number of years been substantially concentrated on clinical negligence work, involving claims of all types but particularly cases of very high value, frequently arising from brain injury sustained at birth.

She has very extensive expertise in both complex liability and quantum issues and acts for both claimants and defendants.

In the last few years Margaret has been instructed in a number of group actions including claims involving gynaecologists in the North West and South West of England. High value personal injury actions remain an important part of her practice.

She has experience as a mediator, particularly in high value clinical negligence and personal injury claims and has been involved in the successful resolution of a complex group action.

"An experienced and charming barrister." "She's incredibly easy to deal with and makes very pragmatic points."
